

GOVERNOR SMALL IS OFFERED BY DEFENSE AS STATE WITNESS

Attorney LeForgee Says He Can Tell More About Missing Records of Bank Than Anyone Else—Intimates That He Had Deposit
Slips—E. M. Dunlap is Witness Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)
WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 6.—Part of the missing records of Governor Small's bank—the First Trust & Savings Bank of Kankakee—are in the governor's possession, C. C. LeForgee, the governor's counsel indicated today. Interrupting the state's cross-examination of Roy Taylor, assistant cashier of the bank, called as a court witness, Mr. LeForgee announced the missing deposit slips had come into the governor's possession and offered the governor to the prosecution as a witness to testify about the slips. The one outstanding surprise of the day was stricken from the records when James H. Wilkerson, assistant attorney general, objected to Mr. LeForgee's remarks in the presence of the jury.

Judge Claire C. Edwards called Mr. Taylor and a director and the cashier of the Grant Park Trust & Savings Bank owned by the governor's co-defendant, Vernon Curtis, as witnesses of the court after the state declined to vouch for their testimony on the ground that they were hostile witnesses.

FORMER SENATORS NAME IS INJECTED IN TARIFF DEBATE

Ashurst Attacks Former Senator Lippert
for Activities

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—An attack on former Senator Henry F. Lippert of Rhode Island, a cotton goods manufacturer for alleged activities in the interest of high tariff protection for his products and additional recessions
by the finance committee majority from rates originally proposed marked senate consideration today of the tariff bill.

There also was a renewal of general debate, Senator Harrison Democrat, Mississippi charged that the Republicans had determined upon a policy of replying to attacks on the bill so that senate action might be delayed and the measure finally killed in conference between the house and senate after November election.

The attack on former Senator Lippert was made by Senator Ashurst, Democrat, Arizona who expressed doubt of the "propriety
and the ethics" of a man who had once been a senator and thus had entree to the senate chamber intervening his former colleagues
here with a view to increasing tariff duties from which he would profit financially. The first three hours of the senate session today was taken up with general discussion. Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, declared there already had been ten miles of discussion, a distance reached by stringing out senators' speeches line to line.

Rates from which the committee receded today included those on cut nails and spikes, horse shoe nails, horse shoe rivets and studs and steel and iron screws.
On cut nails the duty of 30 percent ad valorem originally recommended was cut in half. The duty on horse shoe nails was reduced from 2 1-2 cents a pound to 1-2 cent and the 4 1-2 proposed for rivets and studs was reduced to 3 percent. On horse shoes the rate was made 1-5 cents a pound instead of three-fifths.

BELIEVE CHILEAN PLAN READY FOR THE CONFERENCE

Both Sides Appear to be Confident Results Will Follow

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—There was every indication tonight that Chile was about to lay before the Chilean-Peruvian conference here
a long delayed reply to Peru's Tacha-Arica arbitration proposal.
Coincidentally increased optimism in the outcome of the negotiations was apparent among both Chileans and Peruvians altho the confidence of the two groups seemed based on conflicting premises.

The Peruvian plenipotentiaries, declaring that their proposal represented the greatest length to which they were prepared to go pinned their hope on an apparent
belief that the arbitration plan submitted by them would be accepted by Chile.

By Chilean spokesmen it was reiterated that Peru's plan appeared impracticable, but it was asserted that some other solution
eventually would be found acceptable to both sides. One explanation to this apparent paradox suggested in Latin American diplomatic circles was that both sides might be preparing to stand their ground and then invite the United States to assume the task of mediating between them. That any such step already had been planned, however, was denied by members of both delegations.

BROOKHART WINS BY BIG MARGIN

(By The Associated Press)

Brookhart of Washington was nominated the Republican candidate for the United States senate from Iowa at the primary Monday.

of his victory. Of 269,084 votes cast in these precincts, Brookhart received 118,493 or exactly forty one per cent. Thirty five per cent is necessary for nomination.
He has a margin of more than 17,000 votes in returns which account for all except perhaps 35, 000 votes cast for all candidates for senator.

WANTS WOMEN IN HOME RECOGNIZED

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 6.—That women in the home are deserving of consideration from an economic standpoint on a par with those engaged in other lines of industry was set forth in a resolution introduced today at the convention of the National Woman's Trade Union League.
The resolution was introduced by Amy Walker Field and Alice Henry of Chicago, with figures to show that while there are 8,000-600 women engaged in wage earning occupations 2,000,000 of these being in domestic service,
there are 20,000,000 women who are doing domestic work in their own homes. "They receive no recognition for this work," the resolution read "because of its indispensability. Nevertheless, it has economic value and should not merely be taken for granted."

SAYS FIRMS REFUSE TO SELL MATERIAL

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—A complaint was made to Attorney General Daugherty late today by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor
against the alleged refusal of certain building material dealers in San Francisco to sell to firm employing union labor. Mr. Morris-son said later the attorney general had assured him he would investigate the complaint.
Mr. Morrison presented letters and telegrams from the Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers International Union with headquarters in Indianapolis, naming the industrial association of San Francisco as representing the employers association in the alleged boycott of construction jobs employing union labor and other firms and organizations which were charged with specific instances of discrimination.

UNITED STATES IS READY TO DISCUSS WAR DEBT PAYMENT

Formal Notice Presented to French Foreign Office
Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, June 6.—Notification from Washington that the United States government was ready to discuss the settlement of war debts was presented to the foreign office this afternoon by Sheldon Whitehouse, counselor of the American embassy. The fixing of date this notification is understood in official circles as a reply to Premier Poincare's note to the debt commission informing it that a French mission headed by Jean V. Parmentier had been appointed and was ready to proceed to the United States whenever the commission deemed it advisable.

Mr. Parmentier is only awaiting the word from Premier Poincare.
It was explained at the ministry of finance this afternoon.
The payment of reparations and the payment of war debts are closely allied, in the French viewpoint and it is said that M. Poincare in opposing any reduction of the total due from Germany is really protecting the interests of the creditors of France, whose capacity for payment is affected by any reductions or postpone-ments of payments by Germany.
Consequently it is thought that final instructions to M. Parmentier may be modified by any action of the reparations commission tomorrow.

MRS. WALTER WARD BEFORE GRAND JURY IN MURDER MYSTERY

District Attorney Expresses Satisfaction Afterward

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 6.—District Attorney Weeks registered satisfaction this afternoon when Mrs. Walter Ward, left the state after having been directed by Supreme Court Justice Morsehauser to answer certain questions put to her by the grand jury in connection with its investigation of the shooting of Clarence Peters by her husband, May 15.

Altho Mr. Weeks declined to disclose what had taken place at the examination it was understood that Mrs. Ward had been questioned concerning the card party alleged to have been held in her home the night of the shooting.

At a conference in his chambers, Justice Morsehauser, was understood to have ruled that while she might plead privilege if she were asked questions concerning communications passing between her and Mr. Ward as man and wife, she would have to reply to queries concerning conversations at which a third person was present.

MILK MEN MEET TO CONSIDER CONTRACT

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 6.—Several hundred day men from all parts of the Chicago district in Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin met here today to consider a new contract drawn up by a committee of nine representing the Milk Producers' Cooperative Marketing Company,
the three state farm bureau federations and the American Farm Bureau Federation. The new contract, it was explained will be offered to all farmers who ship milk from the so-called 33 cent
area or whose can rate into Chicago is 33 cents per cwt.

Unless 6,000 signatures, which number it was said would represent 75 per cent of the milk producers in the Chicago zone have been obtained before Sept. 1, the organization will not be attempted to be sold. When the minimum quota has been reached the producers company will contract with dealers and manufacturers guaranteeing a supply of milk for a given period.

Under the proposed contract
four different money pools would be created:
First, receipts from fluid milk
sales; second, sales of milk for condensaries; third, for cheese;
fourth, butter. Under this plan
it was said the nearby producer would receive a slightly larger price for his milk than would the former whose shipping point is some distance from the city.

ministration represents the only

INTIMATES LABOR BOARD IS HELPING RAILROAD POLICY

B. M. Jewell, Head of Shop Crafts Union,
Issued Statement

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, O., June 6.—
Characterizing the shops crafts wage cut decision as a hastily dressed up and obviously unfair
apology for the $50,000,000 slash
B. M. Jewell, head of the six shop craft unions declared today that the evidence in the case had been totally ignored and that the decision gave rise to the belief that the board was trying to help the railroads carry out their labor policy.

The labor union head, here for a conference of union heads,
which today called for a strike
vote of 1,200,000 railway workers, said the board's latest cut
could be justified by no stretch of the facts.

"The board was offered evidence as to the amount necessary to secure the necessities of life for railroad families," Mr. Jewell said. "The rates in this decision are so far below those necessary that this evidence must have been ignored."

Mr. Jewell charged that tables published in the decision comparing the purchasing power of railway wages today with those of the pre-war period misrepresented the facts.

Based on previous wage reports of the board, Mr. Jewell estimated that in the case of five crafts the new wages which become effective July 1, will purchase less than those of 1915 by over 10 per cent and in the case of the three crafts will mean a decrease of over 15 per cent in the standard of living.

Employees See Contrast.
"The employees cannot help noticing the contrast between their losses and increasing profits of the railroads," he said. "The payroll losses of the shop crafts since 1920 as the result of decisions and layoffs amount to at least $350,000,000. Similarly the maintenance of way men are losing at the rate of $300,000,000 annually. Such a reduction makes the 10 per cent reduction in railroad rates totaling $400,000,000 look pretty small. Someone is pocket-ing the difference."

The shop president declared the transportation act was given the railroads "a guarantee of better earnings than were ever before enjoyed and takes from the employees standards which they believed they had won for all time."

"The danger lies not so much in the attitude toward the labor board," continued Mr. Jewell.
"It lies in the fact that the board
is one branch of the government.
Such decisions as this will go far to undermine confidence in our national institutions."

The new wage slash would also affect morale, President Jewell said because the employees would not be able to give their highest efficiency as under "just conditions."

HARDING AND TAFT HONORARY OFFICERS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 6.—President Harding and Justice Taft of the positions of honorary president and vice president respectively of the American Olympic

day by Colonel Robert M. Thompson, president of the association.

ified by the executive committee.

sociation and Julius H. Barnes,

ber of commerce representing the

ing of the A. O. A., scheduled for

COMMENCEMENT AT ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE TUESDAY

Seventy-First Annual Exercises Held Tuesday—Dr. J. C. Nate Delivers Address to Class—Expresses Faith in the Young People of Today—Reception Follows

"The young people in our colleges today are thinking of life as an investment for service," declared Dr. Joseph C.
Nate of New York City in an address at the commencement exercises at Illinois Woman's College yesterday when a class of twenty-five young women received the degree of bachelor of arts. Dr. Nate, who was formerly pastor of Grace church in this city and who is now assistant secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church and prominent in educational work in America, sounded a note of faith and belief in the young people of today.

The college this year held the seventy first annual commencement, and the exercises yesterday in Music Hall were attended by hundreds of former students, alumnae and friends of the institution. The academic procession was formed in the college halls, and the procession of alumnae, faculty members, graduates, trustees and former students moved into the hall as Henry Ward Pearson of the College of Music played "Cortege des Cardinaux," by Barton, at the organ. Reverend Terhune of the Southern Illinois Conference offered the invocation. A lovely musical selection, a solo, by Mrs. Marguerite Palmer Forrester was a part of the program, and Mrs. Forrest was assisted by Miss Olga Sapio at the piano, Miss Beatrice Horsburgh, violinist, and Henry Ward Pearson at the organ.

President J. R. Harker then introduced Dr. Nate who took as the theme of his address "The College and the Times." As introductory to the discussion of this theme Dr. Nate gave a short sketch of the growth of Illinois Woman's College, taking it as typical of the relation of all colleges to all times.

The foundation of the college
was laid many years ago by men whose faith and vision made possible the institution of today. The resources and possibilities of other years make the achievement of these men even greater than a like accomplishment today. Dr.
Nate spoke especially of the year 1858 when the main building of the college was burned and the people of the community raised $30,000, a large amount for those days, in order that the college might be maintained. Men then gave amounts that constituted a large percent of their meager salaries and the sacrifices of those other days made possible the college as it is today. "They builded even better than they knew,"
and the institution stands as a monument to the great faith and hope of these pioneer days.

"The world has turned a mighty corner during the last few years," said Dr. Nate, "and some new factors have entered into college life.
The large increase in the student body of the colleges and universities has brought a new and impelling factor into the life and influence of these institutions. And in this powerful student body
there has come a great new spirit, the ideal of service. The speaker denounced the modern view so often expressed, that the young people of today are superficial,
haphazard and in many respects lacking in the fine qualities of character, and stated that "I believe in young people more today
than I ever did before."

The religious life in the colleges in a quiet way, without great acclamation, is manifesting itself in the thought of life as an investment for service on the part of the young people. The ideal of service is the great keynote of the modern college and the social appeal is gripping college, community, business and religious life as it never has before.

The social problems of today
are demanding solution and there is a growing consciousness that college people must work to prevent great world tragedies and must determine between a world
for peace and a world for war.
New Day For Womanhood.
"This is a new day for womanhood," the speaker declared.
"Woman is the companion and equal of man in all his undertakings. She is taking an active part in the great movements for world peace, world temperance and is bringing into politics and national life the new purpose and that of idealism."

"It was for a woman to make the greatest utterance which has come to us from the recent world war. Edith Cavell, the little English nurse, as she paid the supreme sacrifice said, 'Standing here in the presence of God and of Eternity, I realize that patriotism is not enough; I must go hence without any hatred and bitterness in my heart toward any man.'"

"What is enough for the college man or woman of today?
The colleges stand between the break down of the world and the noble ideals of centuries. It is the responsibility of the college woman to lead in bringing new woman to lead in bringing new age of knowledge, faith and service. It is the socially pivot-

FORD IS PREPARED TO BEGIN WORK ON FEW HOURS NOTICE

This is Statement of Those Close to the Manufacturer

(By The Associated Press)
DETROIT, June 6.—Henry
Ford is prepared to begin work
on the development of the Muscle Shoals water power and nitrate plants upon a few hours notice,
should the offer to take over and operate the project be accepted by congress it was learned today
from sources close to the manufacturer.

According to his offer it was said would be followed immediately by the dispatch of telegrams to various parts of the country that would initiate the Detroit manufacturers plan to create an industrial corner around Muscle Shoals that would be
"crowning accomplishment of his career."

Mr. Ford believes acceptance of his proposal and fruition of his plans will prove the worth of waterpower and that an enterprise like Muscle Shoals can be made to become an asset to the country rather than a liability. The project, it was pointed out, will under Mr. Ford's plans, have paid for itself before the lease expires.
W. B. Mayo, chief engineer of the Ford Company has returned to Detroit and Mr. Ford no longer is personally represented at Washington in connection with the Shoals project. No plans have been made for further negotiations here today. It was stated because Mr. Ford's reply to the counter proposal of the house military committee was his first statement.

Some of the churches of Jacksonville perform a valuable service in their willingness to cater for larger public gatherings. It often happens that such gatherings are larger than could be accommodated at any local hotel or restaurant, and so women of the churches in this class of service meet a community need.

The supreme court decision in the Arkansas mining case had something in it to satisfy varying interests. The miners were relieved from the possibility of paying $600,000 in damages and labor organizations were declared amenable to the Sherman Anti-trust law. Both capital and labor found something to approve.

Mr. Beveridge of Indiana as candidate for senator has a platform that will easily win public favor. He proposes the abolishment of uneconomic and cumbersome laws, less interference with railroads and business generally by the government, and the amendment of the Sherman Anti-trust law.

Some of these things are impending business today and if Mr. Beveridge can assure the people of his state that he will be able to bring to pass some of the things he recommends the only question for him will be the size of his majority.

There is food for thought and reflection in the news item which appeared in the "Ten years ago" column of the Jacksonville Courier, last night. This item relates the fact that just ten years ago the board of public improvement called a hearing for a pavement on East State street from Centenary church to the railroad and from Johnson street to the Washash railroad subway.

It was only two years ago that the pavement to the railroad became an accomplished fact, and the roadway from Johnson street is still unopened.

The difficulty in putting thru public improvements even where the need is acknowledged has been a distinct handicap to Jacksonville. The time should come when the co-operative spirit applies to public improvements as well as to the other affairs of Jacksonville.

With each succeeding commencement season and reports of the financial affairs of local colleges are made public, the thought comes of how important these institutions are to Jacksonville merely in a business way. The report of the president of the Woman's College yesterday indicated that the college disburses at least an average of $20,000 a month. Practically all of this goes into the business channels of Jacksonville. The sum does not take into account the private expenditures made by members of the faculty and student body which also go into the channels of trade.

It was forcibly brought out at the Chamber of Commerce dinner last night that while the record of the year for the organization is excellent, that the important thing is the future. The chamber of commerce during the past year has been fortunate in the leadership of President Rowe and thru the co-operation of other officers and the loyal membership, many worth while things have been done.

Possibly the greatest contribution has been in the further development of community action—the impetus given to the thought that Jacksonville can and will grow.

WHITE HALL RESIDENT REACHES GREAT AGE

Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan Celebrates 85th Birthday Anniversary — Other White Hall News Notes.

White Hall, June 7.—An informal reception this afternoon at the home of the Duncan sisters on Carrollton street is in honor of the mother of this well known quartet of singers, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, who is hale and hearty on her 85th birthday. Native of Tennessee, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan is a woman of hospitable and cheerful spirit and large and hopeful vision. These qualities have endeared her to the general community that was given exhibition by the measure of devotion extended her on this 85th anniversary occasion.

She was born June 7th, 1837, at Fordtown, Sullivan county, Tennessee, her maiden name being Carr. She has just turned 85 years when her marriage with Thomas Duncan occurred, and the happy young couple at once came to the Illinois country in quest of the larger opportunities offered in the then comparatively new state. They came with a party of 32 in carriages, there being lively migration during that period from the southern states to the Illinois state. They were four weeks on the road, from the middle of August to the middle of September, with excellent weather prevailing, and it is the memory of this journey that comes to our subject with increasing joy with the recurring years, probably because she was a happy bride of 19 and they were seeking to carve out their fortune in the world.

At Louisville, Ky., she saw a railroad train for the first time, which added to the wonders of the trip. They settled on a farm at Girard, Macoupin county, and were later located in Girard until coming to White Hall forty years ago. They conducted the Commercial hotel until the death of Mr. Duncan about ten years ago. It was after their coming to White Hall that their daughters became recognized as singers, and four of them, Emma, Ella, Laura and Marie made wide tours in concert work until the death of the latter 17 years ago, and the broken ranks were filled with the advent of Miss Bird, but the Duncans soon gave up concert work. Two other daughters are Mrs. Minnie Smith of Palmyra and Mrs. W. O. Springs of Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

Miss Kate died in 1893 and another daughter died in infancy. It is shown, therefore, that Mrs. Duncan was the mother of nine daughters. She retains excellent health both physically and mentally, and enjoys home duties, delighting in her garden and flowers. She united with the Baptist church more than seventy years ago, and rarely is her seat vacant at morning or evening services of the First Baptist church, where her presence seems to apply to Longfellow's "Village Blacksmith," as she hears her daughters' voices "singing in the village choir."

She is the sole survivor of a family of three sisters and five brothers.

Trammaster Makes Visit. D. J. Deasy, C. A. and a trainmaster at Roodhouse, spent Monday in White Hall looking up evidence as to the placarding of cars with notices by the union of clay workers. Asked as to the reported consolidation of the C. & A. and the M. K. & T., he left no doubt that he thinks there is a great deal in the report, and that some of the C. & A. officials, himself not excluded, are feeling none too easy over prospects of new faces eventually coming into the affairs of the C. & A. "We can opine to our heart's content for that matter," he added. "Let me venture one possibility in connection with the railroad consolidation program, and then we will let time tell the story of how near we are correct. I believe that the C. & A. is destined to become part of a consolidation of five railroad systems, these being the St. Louis Southwestern, the Missouri Pacific, Frisco and the M. K. & T., aside from the C. & A."

Weather Bureau Chief's Visit. The recent visit of Hon. C. J. Root of Springfield, Illinois, chief of the U. S. weather bureau, on his tour of inspection of co-operative stations in Illinois, resulted in his reporting the work in Illinois to be in good hands. White Hall is one of the co-operative stations scattered the length and breadth of the United States are hundreds of co-operative observers who daily perform their routine duties of observing and recording the maximum and minimum temperatures, the rainfall or snowfall, depth of snow on the ground, prevailing direction of the wind, general character of the day, and such other meteorological data as each one's personal bent may prompt him to record. This faithful army of observers has been organized principally by the United States weather bureau, but the nucleus was in existence, under the stimulus of the Smithsonian Institute, many years before the creation of the present weather bureau. The instruments, record books and instructions for uniform observations are furnished and maintained by the weather bureau, but the observers willingly contribute their services, day by day, year after year, for the advancement of science, and find their reward in the incidental recording of certain publications and bulletins and the consciousness of doing well an important public service. Only the members of the weather bureau and those intimately acquainted with the aggregate contribution of meteorological statistics secured in this way appreciate at its full value the faithful service rendered by this small army of co-operative workers.

REPRESENTATIVE FROM GIRARD

Monday afternoon, Trumbull Smith of Girard was in the city negotiating with the Illinois Steel Bridge company. Yesterday morning he departed for White Hall, where he was to learn the results of a bid he had placed there on the new community high school building. The contract was to be let at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Do your feet give out in the afternoon?

PROBABLY there is nothing the matter with your feet, but soon after you put on your shoes, they begin to tire. Why? Nature planned the foot to have three points of contact with the ground — heel, ball and outside arch. But in raising the heel from the ground, the arch is left without a firm support. Your weight bearing down on the unsupported arch strains it.

The Arch Preserver Shoe raises the heel and arch from the ground, thus giving the foot the stylish appearance you desire; but unlike shoes with bending arches, it has a concealed built-in arch-bridge that supports the arch! Though shod in the latest fashion, your feet are free from strain all through the longest, hardest, day when you wear Arch Preserver Shoes.

ARE ANTICIPATING
BRILLIANT SEASON

LONDON.—London shopkeepers are anticipating a season far more brilliant than any since the war. It is expected that more American money will be spent here this year than for many years past, and many are the plans being made to capture as much of it as possible by entertainments of various sorts.

In Charing Cross Road London is planning the biggest dance in the world. This will have accommodation on one floor for 1,600 dancers and balcony space for 1,000 spectators. Eighty women and 25 men will be engaged to teach dancing, while three bands, two English and one American, will provide the music.

For the other side of the picture the Bishop of Peterborough has proposed that in every ballroom and every dinner table during the season a box be placed labelled "For the Fellowship of Britain," in which contributions could be received "for the many thousands in this country who often do not know where the next meal is to come from."

FOREST FIRES ARE RAGING

St. Paul, Minn., June 6.—Forest fires which were burning over a wide timber area in three northern counties of the state are reported as being "held" with the exception of one blaze on the Manitou river, southeast of Cramer, about 80 miles north of Duluth, according to reports received late today by W. T. Cox, state forester.

TAMPERING WITH
WITNESSES AGAIN
CHARGED IN TRIAL

Allegation Made By Prosecution in Trial of Greeks

QUINCY, Ill., June 6.—Another charge of tampering with witnesses was made in the trial of the 23 Greeks charged with the murder of Sheriff Edward Lashbrook at Frederick, Schuyler county now in progress here. State's Attorney Mournin complained to the court that a stranger who gave the name of McSweeney and who said he represented the "state constabulary" had been quietly interviewing witnesses for the prosecution and giving the information to the defense. McSweeney was called in and reprimanded by Judge Wolfe who admonished him if he heard of it again he would send him to jail.

Deputy James Kelley, who was with the sheriff when he met his death underwent an ordeal of cross-examination which lasted all day but stuck to his story that the firing came from the bunk car occupied by the Greeks. He also identified four shotguns and three revolvers, besides a number of shells which had been taken from the Greek's car.

H. B. Heath, a special agent for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad said he was on his way to Frederick to aid in the prosecution of the Greeks on the night of April 23 but the shooting was all over with when he arrived there.

OBITUARY

After an illness of several months duration, Harvey C. Harney, well known and highly respected citizen of this community passed quietly away at his home in Woodson on Friday evening, June 2, 1922, age 26 years, 10 months and 23 days.

Harvey, son of Benjamin and Alice Harney was born July 9, 1895 at Woodson and with the exception of 13 months devoted to the service of his country, spent his entire life in this community.

He received his education in the schools of Woodson and later followed the occupation of farming.

When his country became involved in the great European conflict, Harvey was among the first men of his community to heed the call. He was inducted into service April 28, 1918 at Jacksonville, Ill. and immediately entrained for Camp Dix, N. J. Upon his arrival he was transferred to the 308th machine gun battalion of the 78th division which embarked for France on May 17, 1918. Upon arrival his outfit was rushed to the battle area where he served at first in the defensive sector. His outfit, the 78th, participated in the famous St. Michael Offensive Sept. 9 to 16, 1918, which has been characterized as one of the brilliant movements of the war, later the 78th occupied the Luney sector from Sept. 16 to Oct. 6, 1918, followed by the Meuse-Argonne offensive from Oct. 16 to Nov. 5, 1918, the celebrated offensive which precipitated the downfall of the Central Powers a few days later.

After the signing of the Armistice, he remained in France for several months, and then returned to the States arriving at Camp Grant about the first of May 1919.

Harvey received his honorable discharge from the service on May 21, 1919.

He returned to Woodson and followed the occupation he had left at the time of his induction.

On March 18, 1920, he was united in marriage to Juanita Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watts of Woodson.

Several years ago, he united with the Christian church and was a member of that body at the time of his death.

Through the months of illness prior to his death he displayed a degree of patience truly remarkable, and passed into the "Great Beyond" supremely confident that he had obeyed the will of the Master.

He leaves to mourn his departure, his devoted wife, Juanita Harney, two brothers, Jesse of Woodson and Earl of the State of Minnesota.

His father and mother, a sister, Mrs. John Hopper, a brother, Guy and also an infant sister preceded him in death several years ago. In his departure the home has lost a devoted husband; the community, a helpful citizen; the nation a good soldier.

But we rejoice in the hope that he has found a better place in the "Realms beyond the Skies."

BIDS ARE OPENED FOR WHITE HALL SCHOOL

Board of Education Defers Action for One Week on Bids for New High School—S. N. Griswold to Erect Memorial Library.

White Hall, June 6.—The Board of education of White Hall district No. 66 received bids Tuesday for the erection of a high school building. Bids received ranged from $74,000 to $92,000, the lowest being made by a firm at Kansas, Ill. The board decided to defer action on the bids for one week.

The people of the district have authorized a bond issue of $65,000, and by checking up on alternate bids and making certain revisions by the architect, it was found that the contract can safely be let within a very short time.

The new high school is to be erected on the Seth N. Griswold property on North Main street, which was purchased by the board some time since at a cost of $10,000. Mr. Griswold made a donation of $1,000, thus reducing the cost to $9,000. The site includes five acres and is an ideal one.

To Build Memorial Library—Seth N. Griswold was in conference with an architect Tuesday with reference to plans for the erection of a memorial library building at White Side Park. The minimum cost of the proposed building is $10,000 and it is to be a memorial to Mrs. Griswold. Work is to be commenced at a very early date.

NINE DIPLOMAS GRANTED AT ROUTT COLLEGE

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES
WERE HELD TUESDAY
NIGHT

Forceful Address By P. H. O'Donnell
Well Known Chicago Lawyer—Dean Formaz Presented Diplomas.

Diplomas were presented to nine graduates at Routt college commencement, held Tuesday night. The address was delivered by Hon. P. H. O'Donnell of Chicago and the diplomas were presented by Very Reverend Dean F. F. Formaz.

The members of the class are Edward Manderville, Byron Gwin, Eloise Lukeman, Elsie Lukeman, Margaret Kelly, Louise Renner, Henrietta Gruber, Lucille Kennedy and Cecilia Maloney.

Special music was furnished for the occasion by the Glee club and the whole event was one of unusual interest. The platform was appropriately decorated with flowers and streamers of the class colors. One of the largest audiences that ever assembled at a Routt college commencement was in attendance.

Mr. O'Donnell, prominent as a Chicago attorney, is one of the best known public speakers in the country. He is a national platform figure and has an unusual reputation in that he speaks only on patriotic, educational or religious subjects and always without compensation.

Local College Unique.

In beginning his address last night Mr. O'Donnell referred to Routt College as a unique institution in that its educational opportunities are offered without cost. He said that this is the first college in the country to return to the principles upon which the older great universities of Europe were built. The members of the faculty there taught without compensation and in many instances in addition supported their students.

In proof of this statement he told of Oxford, the University of Paris and the University of Bobbio. In the period from the 12th to the 15th century these and other of the older universities furnished educational opportunities without compensation and as indicated, in most instances supported their students.

Mr. O'Donnell said that a Christian education today is an essential element of training in America because America is a Christian nation. He voiced the thought that only the nearest to a perfect Christian training can develop the most perfect American. The essentials of Christian civilization, he said, include individual liberty, the sacredness of the home and rights of property, and because the college here lays emphasis upon these things and seeks to develop Christian character and civilization, it is a typical American school.

The Change In Opportunities.
Then Mr. O'Donnell drew some comparisons between the opportunities offered here at Routt college, where no tuition is charged, with his own experiences at Georgetown university in Washington. The speaker, who was born on a farm in Indiana, told of his early struggle to secure an education and said that at the age of 24 years he went to Georgetown university at that time never having looked inside a classical book. It was necessary for him to work his way thru the university and eight years were necessary for the process.

Mr. O'Donnell did not mention his Chicago career but there were many in the audience familiar with the large place that he occupies in the life of Chicago. Although a candidate for office, he takes an active part in public affairs, finding time for this work in addition to giving his attention to a very extensive law practice.

Mr. O'Donnell was a guest of President Harding at Marion just a few weeks before the president left his Ohio home to take up his duties at Washington and the two have long had a friendly intimacy.

While he made no reference to the subject last night, in recent months the press has paid some special attention to Mr. O'Donnell's views on disarmament. He is recognized as an authority on matters pertaining to the commerce of the seas and is a firm believer in the development of a merchant marine. However, he holds the view that there should be no extensive marine unless a navy is maintained that can defend it.

The Meaning of Education.
Father Formaz expressed the appreciation of the audience in having the distinguished speaker here for the commencement address. Then Father Formaz presented the diplomas to the graduates. He emphasized the thought of the importance of the training of the will which comes along with real education. He suggested that education of the intellect alone may be accounted as an undesirable thing unless there is the proper accompanying character development.

The graduates, he said, might forget some of the details of their class room work but he said the effects of their mind training would remain with them and be of value as it resulted in their faithfulness to ideals and the service rendered to humanity.

The Glee club numbers interspersed with other events of the program were as follows:
Chief of the Arab Band . . . Bliss
Irish Folk Song . . . Taylor
The Little Duetman . . . Brahms
My Johnnie . . . Taylor
I Hear a Thrush . . . Cadman
Soldiers' Chorus . . . Gounod

FUNERALS

Funeral rites for Michael McNamara were held at the Church of Our Savior at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning in charge of Rev. Father F. F. Formaz. Burial was made in Diamond Grove cemetery. ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS ASSN.

TO SEEK NEW MEMBERS
The Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis association held a meeting Monday evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, when plans were discussed for the launching of a campaign for new members of the association. The campaign will not be put on for a number of days yet, as all the plans have not yet been formulated. It is the belief that by a determined effort a large number of new members may be added and thus interest in the work of the association increased.

ROUTT ALUMNI TO

HOLD REUNION
Members of the Alumni association of Routt College will hold an annual reunion this evening at Liberty hall. The dinner is to be served at about 6 o'clock and will be followed by a program of toasts. Extensive arrangements are being made for the event, which will be of interest to all the members of the association and the institution.

NEW FEATURE FOR

OSAGE ORANGE DAY
One feature of the Osage Orange Day picnic at Illinois college next Monday will be songs and a group of plays given by the Modern Language club. This program will be given promptly at 3:30 o'clock on the commencement platform building. The plays were produced at the Cosmopolitan meet, where they proved a great success.

OPTIMISM THE NOTE AT C. OF C. DINNER

TUESDAY NIGHT EVENT WELL ATTENDED.

Pres. Rowe Declared "Forward
Look" The Thing — Addresses
Made by U. S. Chamber of Commerce and American City Bureau Representatives.

About 140 Jacksonville business men attended the Chamber of Commerce dinner Tuesday night, served by the Pastoral Helpers of Central Christian church. President R. Y. Rowe presided, and while he said the occasion was a stock taking time, intended somewhat as a review of the work of the year, that little time should be spent in past history—that the greater concern is about the present and the greatest of all about the future.

Slips were found at each plate giving brief summary of the varied activities of the Chamber of Commerce during the past year. The addresses were given by Field Director Moss of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and J. H. McLaughlin of the American City Bureau. Members of the organization who made three minute talks were C. H. Story, F. H. Rowe, Carl E. Robinson, Louis Horen and John Doyle.

A musical program of special excellence added to the interest of the occasion. Miss Helen Sorrells gave two violin numbers, Miss Beulah Tull sang a group of songs and William Ooley sang two solos. Accompanists were Miss Bennett and Willard Wesner.

Co-operation Brought Results

President Rowe said that what ever had been accomplished by the Chamber of Commerce during the year was because of the unselfish service given by the directors and members of the committee and also the loyal cooperation of members.

In the three minutes time allotted to him that he proposed to use a half minute in talking about the past and two and one-half minutes in talking about the future. He suggested that the mental attitude is one of the most important things about a city and that Jacksonville of 1930 can be made as its citizens see it if they have but the necessary faith and build accordingly.

"Twenty years ago Decatur was no larger than Jacksonville," Mr. Rowe said, "but today it has a population of 45,000 and the plans are in the making which justify the expectation that the present rate of growth will continue and that within a comparatively few years Decatur will be a city of 150,000. Jacksonville is built on the same kind of soil and the things most important to us are vision and unity of action."

Ten Years From Now.

"Ten years from now the man who returns to his home city of Jacksonville should leave the train at the union station. There will be hard roads leading into Jacksonville from all directions and I can readily conceive of a most beautiful boulevard system lining up our state institutions and educational institutions."

Mr. Moss said that in visiting Chambers of commerce since September he had found none with a record to excel that of the local chamber. He said that the chamber of commerce is now an established American institution and its function is to do the things in the community which require co-operative action.

He said that the chamber of commerce had grown largely because it is the organization thru which the people of all classes and all creeds can work together. Its very broadness is a factor in its strength.

The Secretary's Good Record.

Mr. McLaughlin commented briefly upon the good record of the year and said that based upon several visits to Jacksonville he could truthfully say that he had found nowhere a finer spirit of co-operation. He referred also to the excellence of the work of Secretary Welch thruout the eight months.

At the end of Mr. Ratliff's season they will return to Jacksonville and live with the groom's family on North Main street.

In the absence of E. A. Brennan, treasurer, a summary of his report was made by Secretary Welch. Then came the brief talks by members of the chamber of commerce. President Rowe sought to make the occasion as informal as possible and everybody had a chance to talk.

Before adjournment the chairmen expressed appreciation for the contributions made by the musicians and thanks to the ladies of the Christian church for the excellent dinner served.

Ratliff-Mansfield

Clarence R. Ratliff and Miss Louise Mansfield, both of this city, were married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Highland Methodist Episcopal church South at Louisville, Ky. The wedding was a quiet one and witnessed by a few friends. The bride was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Snuff, Miss Margaret Snuff and Robert Hawes. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. B. Grider, presiding elder of the Louisville district. Both the young people are well and favorably known in this city. SOUTH JACKSONVILLE TO VOTE ON BOND ISSUE

The citizens of South Jacksonville are to vote on the issuing of bonds for the laying of water mains in all the principal streets of the village, the date for such election to be set at a meeting to be held tonight. The decision to call the election was reached at a recent meeting of the village board and it is the intention to make a great effort to get out a large vote at the election.

If the voters authorize the bond issue it is probable that the mains will be laid during the coming summer. There is now on hand about $5,000 for the purpose and it will therefore be necessary to issue bonds to the amount of $8,000 to $10,000.

GREENE COUNTY MAN IS ELECTROCUTED

Charles Garner Met Instant Death
Tuesday Afternoon at McClay
Orchard Near Hillview.

White Hall, June 6.—Charles Garner, an employee of the A. L. McClay apple orchard near Hillview, was electrocuted there at about 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, when he came into contact with a live wire. Garner was on a load of hay and touched the wire with his pitchfork. He was thrown from the load and carried by other employees to a tree nearby, where he expired within a few moments.

Dr. Ross Edwards of Carrollton, the coroner, was summoned and empanelled a jury and an inquest was held late Tuesday afternoon. The verdict was accidental death by electrocution.

The deceased was about 31 years of age and had spent all his life in the vicinity of Hillview. He is survived by his wife and three small children, also by his mother, Mrs. John Garner, who lives at Hillview. He has been in the employ of the McClay orchard for five or six years and was an industrious, highly respected man. A brother of the deceased, Clarence Garner, was accidentally killed by a train at Alton a little over a year ago. His father, John Garner, died three years ago. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

should spend at least one vacation in "The Land of Wonders"—Yellowstone Park—and see sights and scenes the like of which do not exist elsewhere. By the way, this is the Golden Anniversary of Yellowstone—President U. S. Grant signed the act of dedication of Yellowstone "For the enjoyment and Benefit of the People," on March 1, 1872.

Briefly, the attractions are—an incomparable climate, wild animals of numerous species living their natural life (Yellowstone is the largest wild game preserve in the world); magnificent forests; wild flowers of brilliant hues, in great variety and profusion; lakes, rivers, waterfalls (the Great Fall is almost twice as high as Niagara), innumerable rivers and creeks; geysers, mud volcanoes, hot and mineral springs, exquisitely colored pools; mountains and canyons; wonderful hotels, bungalow camps, an automobile ride that has no counterpart in all the world, and—the Cody Road, through the Buffalo Bill Country, which has been called "the most wonderful ninety miles in America."

Why not go this year? Take the family! Decide when, then let me make your reservations so you will be sure of accommodations. Ask me how to include Colorado without added rail cost.

Annual Statement Made to Woman's College Board

(By JOSEPH R. HARKER)

Report of the President to the Board of Trustees, for year ending June 6, 1922:

Attendance

1. It is interesting to note the gradual increase of total attendance of the college in the last four years. The total enrollment has been as follows: 349, 359, 432, and 473. The enrollment this year is the largest in the history of the college.

Income and Expenses

2. The dormitory budget of income for the current year has reached a total of $86,596, and the college budget $97,613, making a total for the entire college of $184,209. It is interesting to compare this with the income for dormitory and college the first year I was president, 1893-4; the total income from all sources in that year was $18,267, so that the present income is more than ten times that amount. It is worth while for business men in Jacksonville to observe what a factor the college is in the business life of the city. We spend over $20,000 a month during the nine months of the college year; nearly all this comes from outside of the city and nearly all of it is spent in Jacksonville.

Improvement and Equipment

3. In the last two years more than $25,000 has been spent in improvement and equipment of the college plant, in additions to library books and equipment, in putting new hard wood floors into more than eighty rooms, in adding new and beautifully furnished bath rooms, in general room decoration and in additions to laboratory equipment.

It is proposed for the coming year to continue these general improvements, and if the funds can be provided in some way, to spend from $10,000 to $12,000 in betterments; these will include new furniture in the dormitory rooms, new range and dishwasher in the kitchen, resetting the boilers in the power house, new equipment in the laundry, and considerable additions to equipment in the laboratories.

Courses of Study

4. During the past year the catalog has been thoroughly revised by the faculty, the courses of study increased and improved both in form and content, provision has been made for the better recognition of the work of the more competent students, the standard of scholarship has been advanced, and greater interest has been aroused in all departments of college work. This has been especially noticeable in the departments of written and spoken English and in competition for college honors. We are constantly receiving evidence from university and college standardizing boards of the very highest scholastic recognition. The reputation of the college is spreading throughout the entire country, and applications for enrollment are coming earlier and in greater numbers than ever before.

The American Association of University Women

5. It is gratifying to note that since the college has been recognized in the list of the Association of American Universities and admitted to membership in the American Association of University Women, it has been possible to organize a branch of this Association in Jacksonville to which our graduates are admitted as national members, an honor accorded only to colleges of the highest rank. I congratulate the college women of Jacksonville on the organization of this society and predict for it a great place in the advancement of high college ideals and opportunities for women in Jacksonville.

Athletic Activities

6. The college gymnasium and swimming pool are proving each year a greater asset both to the college and to Jacksonville. The college interest in physical exercise increases every year, and we are glad also of the opportunity to open the gymnasium, the swimming pool and the tennis courts to the women of the city. We will do all we can to make provision for the teachers and students of the public and high schools, and for women's and children's classes, and we extend to them a cordial welcome. Just as soon and to the extent that we have the means we hope to arrange for such city use of our unusual physical equipment during the summer as well as during the regular college year.

Religious Activities

7. The year has also been marked by special interest in religious activities of faculty and students. The regular daily chapel exercises are conducted so as to make the chapel a very helpful devotional service, and the college makes as much as possible of the special Day of Prayer for Colleges and of other special times for securing religious interest. In addition to the attention to physical development in the gymnasium and by the Athletic Association, and in addition to the academic interest, the effort is made to connect every student in some way with a definite religious life and to give her training in some phase of religious and social work.

The program in this department includes special courses in the Bible and Religious Education, volunteer Bible study classes, classes in missionary training, suggestions on possible lines of Life Service, the varied activities of the Young Woman's Christian Association, opportunities to teach in the Sunday Schools of Jacksonville and helping in various ways among the students of the institution for the Blind, the men and women of the Old Peoples' Home, and interest in the work of the Social Service League and other organizations for helpful community service in Jacksonville.

The college is educating two missionary women, one from South America and one from Mexico, who are preparing for more effective service in their home fields. The college assisted the churches of Jacksonville during the last year in the organization of a very successful School of Religion. It is proposed to still further increase these religious activities and opportunities, to the end that each student may have a normal religious attitude and experience, and may be prepared for some line of religious work.

The College of Music

8. The College of Music has had an especially good year and has made most valuable contribution to the life and interest both of the college and of the city. The college gives many recitals both by students and faculty and these are well attended and highly appreciated by citizens as well as students. The Artists' Course which has been managed by Director Pearson for the past three years increases in interest and has brought to Jacksonville some of the best musicians both of our own country and from Europe. The College of Music is probably doing more in this respect for Jacksonville than any other organization in the city.

The College Societies

9. During the past year a change has been made in the four college societies with regard to membership and a new plan adopted by which Freshmen are not eligible to the college societies and students who are eligible by scholarship for society membership are admitted at the beginning of the college year without rushing. The Freshmen have been organized into a separate Freshmen college society; this society, the Alpha Phi Delta, has had a very successful beginning and has aroused much interest and enthusiasm. The new plan has received very general approval, though the time has been too short to give it a full trial. The societies have co-operated finely and an excellent society spirit prevails. The college recognizes the great interest and helpfulness of the college societies in all departments of college life and will co-operate with the societies as far as to make them still more useful and influential in the coming years.

Student Aid

10. Perhaps the item in the financial report that will attract most general interest and attention is the item relating to student aid. It is generally true in colleges that many of the best students are not able to pay the college fees, even though these fees do not represent much more than half of the actual current expense of their education. Colleges therefore appeal to friends everywhere in order to make it possible to help worthy students, and all colleges provide for scholarships and other reductions in the college expenses.

The report shows that during the past year the college has given to students in scholarships and in reductions and rebates the total sum of $11,508. Of this, $3,000 comes from the scholarship funds already provided by college friends, but it still leaves the total of $8,508 which the college is giving for the aid of such students. We wish it could be so that no capable and worthy student should ever have to lose the advantage of a college education for lack of funds, and as far as possible we are aiding all such students.

It is well known that ministers' salaries are altogether inadequate, and the college takes a special delight in aiding the daughters of ministers. During the year we have aided twenty-five ministers' daughters to a total of $3,286, and altogether we have assisted 85 students with a total as reported above of $11,508.

We count it a joy to make an appeal both general and personal to men and women who have the means to help us educate these worthy young women. Instead of having a scholarship endowment fund of $64,000, the college ought to have such a fund to the amount of $250,000. No finer benevolence can be suggested.

Alumnae and Former Students

11. If I were asked to state what is the most important factor in the making of a college I would without hesitation answer, "The united body of alumnae and former students." There are many factors in a college—the trustees, the president and administrative officers, the faculty, the students, but all of these are more or less temporary. The college that abides is this united body of graduates and former students. The way they feel about a college, the interest that they take in it, the devotion they have to it, more than any other factor determines its life and influence. Only within a few years has this truth been fully recognized and colleges have until quite recently been strangely indifferent to their former students.

The Woman's College has been keenly alive to their importance now for many years. We have arranged for them to have representation in the Board of Trustees to a greater extent than almost any other college in the country. Six out of the twenty-four trustees are elected by the alumnae. We have tried in every way to encourage the organization of alumnae societies, with the result that we have interested and active societies in Chicago, in Kansas City, and in Los Angeles. There ought to be several others organized, especially the alumnae and former student body in and about Jacksonville ought to be organized, and might be very effective.

We appreciate the growing interest of our alumnae and former students; they are becoming more and more active; they are giving evidence of increased love and devotion to the college and we are anxious to assist this movement in every possible way.

The college has arranged for the appointment of a field secretary, Miss Miriam McOmber of the present graduating class, who will give all her time in the field to the cultivation of acquaintance and organization and college interest on the part of former students. The college also proposes to assist the Jacksonville alumnae in every possible way and has arranged to provide an office for the Association in the college building, to assist the Association with stenographic help, especially to join with them in the publishing of a directory of alumnae and former students, and has appropriated a sum up to $500 for any expense that may be incurred in the carrying forward of the plans of a local organization. We believe that a new and greater day is just dawning for the Alumnae Association of the Illinois Woman's College and we promise the officers every possible co-operation.

Endowment

12. But the greatest problem before the Illinois Woman's College, as indeed before all colleges, is the advance made by the college in the last few years, the endowment and equipment are still far below what is imperatively demanded. A careful survey by the trustees of the needs of the college indicates that in addition to what we already have a full million dollars is still needed. Half of this should be permanently invested, the income only to be used for current needs. Another half million is imperatively needed for additional buildings, grounds and equipment. This statement of needs by the trustees has been carefully studied by a committee from the Illinois Education and approved, and has also been approved by the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church in New York. A committee from that Board recently visited the college and reported that the securing of this additional million dollars is absolutely essential even to the present needs of the institution.

The faculty and the students have entered into this campaign with rare enthusiasm. The faculty and the regular college student body number less than three hundred, but they unanimously decided that they would raise a fund of $20,000. The success of this movement is assured by the fact that already they have subscribed nearly $14,000; and before the end of the campaign they will certainly go over the top. I do not know of a college anywhere of similar number that has made as fine a record.

The total amount secured on the million dollars to date is $270,000. The campaign will be pushed vigorously during the rest of the year and before the Commencement of 1923 we confidently expect to go over the top.

The Illinois and Central Illinois Conference have united in a joint campaign including this amount for the Illinois Woman's College as well as similar amounts for other institutions. The campaign will be thoroughly organized beginning with the coming September and every friend of the college will be enlisted. The response already from alumnae and former students is exceedingly encouraging. A minimum student honor pledge of $100 and a minimum alumnae pledge of $200 has been suggested and some are exceeding these amounts.

In my judgment the coming year will be in every essential respect the most important and the most fruitful year that the Illinois Woman's College has ever seen.

Permit me to repeat what I have said for many years: The greatest need of the College is Friends. Thank God it has so many. May God it may have more and more. If every friend will make some gift to the College every year, and will remember the College in his will, the future of the College will be secure."

SEEK ROUTE FOR HARD ROAD IN GREENE COUNTY

No Difficulty Anticipated in Securing Right of Way for State Road Thru Greene County—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, June 5.—The solution of the problem of obtaining right of way for the state road through the northern part of Greene county has been undertaken by a local committee, following conferences last Friday, attended by Engineer Apple of the state highway commission, S. E. Pierson of Carrollton and H. E. Cain of Roodhouse. The committee comprises Mary and Guy Lewenstein, James Pegram and A. H. Cain.

Engineer Apple accompanied Mr. Pierson and H. O. Tunison over the route between White Hall and Roodhouse, and there is every reason to believe that there will be no difficulty in obtaining the desired right of way for this stretch, and that work may be anticipated this year, the main demand at present being action by the Public Utilities Commission granting permission for the construction of highways under the Alton and Burlington tracks. This committee will also strive to complete negotiations for the route between the south city limits and Belltown.

There has arisen what is regarded as slight objection on the part of W. S. Corsa in the proposed change of Seminary creek bridge. Mr. Corsa objects to the construction in any way marring the natural beauty of the particular spot bounded on one side by Gregory Park or chautauqua grounds and on the other by the reposeful view of the White Hall cemetery, aside from its stern objection to making it a speedway. However, Mr. Corsa has never shown an unyielding spirit toward the general public interest, and it is this point that gives hope of an early solution of that piece of right of way.

The conference was held in the city hall, and was presided over by C. A. Ruckle county president of the Illinois Highway Improvement Association. Joseph Lynch served as secretary.

Peters Funeral Held.
Funeral services over the remains of John Peters whose death occurred at 8:10 a. m. Saturday were held in the home on Carr street at 2 o'clock today the discourse being delivered by Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick and burial was in the White Hall cemetery. His death was the result of uremic poisoning with which he was attacked a week previous to his death and the end came at his home quite unexpectedly to the general public. He was a member of one of the oldest White Hall families that have figured largely in the history of the community, and of seven brothers and five sisters the only survivors are Dr. E. E. Peters of Bradley, O., and Mrs. H. B. Shirley of Los Angeles. The father was the late Springer Peters, John was born in White Hall March 8, 1857, being 65 years of age last March, and his entire life was spent here. His marriage with Miss Clara Perkins occurred September 23, 1880, and she and their eight children survive as follows: Alma, wife of Wm. Miller, Richmond, Va.; George, White Hall; Nell, wife of G. E. Bell, Jacksonville; Dr. R. E.

LUTHERANS TO OBSERVE THE DIAMOND JUBILEE

Congregations of Six Lutheran Churches to Join in Celebration of Important Anniversary—Services to be Held East of Arenzville.

The diamond jubilee celebration of the Lutheran churches in this vicinity will be observed next Sunday at the H. E. Roogge grove two miles east of Arenzville. The congregations of the Beardstown, Arenzville, Chapin, Jacksonville, Neelyville and Lyda churches will unite in this, the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Evangelical Lutheran synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states.

There will be both morning and afternoon services, and all will unite in a picnic dinner at noon. The morning service will begin at 10 o'clock, when Rev. O. H. Horn of Quincy will speak in the German language, and will be followed by Rev. Walter E. Bohnstein of Bloomington, who will speak in English.

At the afternoon service the speaker will be Rev. Robert G. Keyne, of Decatur, who will speak in English. An important feature of the morning service will be the rendition of the anthem, "O Praise the Lord" (Frederick Menckelsohn), by choirs of the Jacksonville, Beardstown and Arenzville churches. In the afternoon this choir of fifty voices will sing "Praise the Lord" by A. Randegard.

All contributions of the day will go toward the church extension fund for mission work in both the home and foreign fields. The general public is invited to attend the services, and it is expected that there will be large delegations present from this and surrounding counties.

Following is a record of the work of the churches and a statement from the synod of its purposes:

History of Synod.
On April 26 the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states, commonly called the Missouri Synod, will be seventy-five years old. This event will be duly observed by Lutherans throughout the country, as the above named Synod is represented in practically every state of the Union, with branches in Canada, South America and other foreign countries. Special jubilee services are to be held in all the churches and joint mass meetings in the larger cities. It is hoped that a large sum of money will be raised as a thank offering, to be applied to the building of churches where energetic mission work is being carried on.

In 1847 a mere handful of men met in Chicago for the purpose of bringing the conservative Lutheran churches in the Central States into closer affiliation. Twelve congregations were represented by their pastors and lay delegates, and these, together with a few other pastors who joined as advisory members, organized what was destined to become the largest individual Lutheran Synod now extant, numbering at present about 3,500 congregations, with nearly 3,000 pastors, over 650,000 communicant members, and a baptized membership of more than 1,000,000. The value of the church property owned by member congregations is approximately $55,000,000, and the various educational institutions of synod represent an additional investment of $10,000,000.

Many Foreign Missions.
The conservative doctrinal position of the original twelve congregations has been maintained throughout all these years. Synod stands four square upon the Scriptures as the infallible word of God, the only source of articles of faith and sole rule of conduct. Accordingly questions of doctrine and practice are decided, not by considerations of expediency, but by the clear words of the Bible. Many people are rather amazed that synod has had such a remarkable growth, notwithstanding this conservative position, while its friends and members find in this very position the secret of its growth.

Intense missionary activity unquestionably is largely responsible for the continued numerical progress of the organization. At the present time 650 pastors are engaged in this work, serving 1,300 missions. Foreign missions are conducted in India and China, England, Brazil, Argentina, France, Germany and other countries.

Another factor contributing to the growth of synod is its parochial school system. These schools are conducted in every way along the lines of our public schools, in many instances articulating with these, only in addition to the secular curriculum they give the children a thorough religious training. In some of the larger cities Lutheran high schools are also maintained. Twelve colleges and collegiate institutes with a student body of nearly 2,100 afford opportunities for higher education. In two seminaries over 500 young men are preparing themselves for the ministry. Concordia Seminary at St. Louis, operated by synod, is probably the largest institution of its kind in America, among the Protestant bodies at any rate.

Extensive Charity Work.
The Missouri Synod has always laid special emphasis on the cardinal doctrine of the Scriptures that man is saved by grace alone through faith. At the same time, however, it always stresses the point that saving faith must naturally will be active in corresponding works of charity after the manner of the Master. Accordingly provision is made for the care of the sick and the helpless and the needy. Fifteen hospitals and two sanitariums are located in larger centers of population, having a property value of $4,087,000 and giving treatment to some 22,000 patients annually, much of which is charity pure and simple. Nine orphanages, valued at $550,000, shelter 650 children. Thirteen home-finding societies gather up some 200 waifs a year and place them in Christian homes for adoption. Two training schools for neglected children, a school for deaf-mutes, a home and school for epileptics, are other institutions of mercy conducted for the benefit of poor and afflicted children. Nine homes for the aged provide hospitable shelter for nearly 400 helpless old people, and five hospices or homes, chiefly for working girls, are conducted, besides hospices for transients in every large city. The disbursements for all organized charitable purposes during the past year were $1,548,710.

Saving and Serving

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) stands squarely on the principle that the man who saves and invests is a better citizen as well as a happier and more useful employee than the one who lives "from hand to mouth" and spends his income as fast as he earns it.

To promote the habit of saving, and to insure that feeling of security in the future, which frees a man's mind from worry, enabling him to give all his energy to creative activities, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) a year ago put into effect, for its employees, a stock investment plan.

Under this plan an employee may save as much as 20 percent of his yearly wage. To every dollar thus saved the Company adds 50c. This money is invested in stock of the Company as fast as sufficient money accumulates to buy one share; for instance, if a man or woman saves $560.00 a year the Company adds thereto one-half of that amount, or $280.00, which will buy 10 shares at the established price for 1922.

Whether or not he takes advantage of this plan is optional with the employee. The fact, however, that the majority of the employees who have been with the Company one year, or more, have availed themselves of the opportunity is convincing evidence that the plan meets a definite need.

Since the plan went into operation it has been apparent that the employees take a greater interest, not only in the work which engages their attention, but what is more important, in the service the Company renders the public.

This is not surprising, for a man with money invested has a stronger interest in a business, and a keener appreciation of its value to the community than a man who has never assumed this responsibility.

Therefore, this stock investment plan for employees of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is an important factor in continually improving the service rendered the public by the Company.

It is but another evidence of the care and forethought exercised by the management in its endeavor to perfect an organization which shall render to the public a maximum of sustained service.

SHOW INCREASE IN WHOLESALE PRICES

LONDON—For the first time since prices began to fall in the spring of 1920, the Board of Trade index figure shows an increase in the general level of wholesale prices. A rise of 0.5 percent in April, as compared with March, occurred, due mainly to higher prices for articles of food other than cereals.

In April the average price level of all food was 1-7 percent above March while in the average price level for industrial materials there was a fall of 0.2 percent. An increase is shown in the cotton group, the April average being 0.5 percent above the average group for March.

THINKS U. S. BEST FIELD FOR CIVILIAN AVIATION

Germans Are Showing Greatest Activity Among European Countries.

GENOA—Gianni Caproni, the Italian airplane inventor and constructor, considers the United States today to be the best field in the world for the development of civilian aviation. He prepared and brought to Genoa a comprehensive program for aerial communication over Europe, by this will have to wait, he said today, owing to the limited financial strength of the various countries embraced in his scheme. "But in the United States," the Italian inventor continued, "civilian aviation promises to make rapid progress."

"The country covers roughly about the same area as Europe," and all the elements for speedy growth are present. I hope to contribute to this branch of American activity."

Germans are showing the greatest activity in Europe, at the present time, in the field of aeronautics, according to aerial observers at Genoa during the recent conference. Anthony Fokker and Professor Junkers, both German experts leased three airplanes factories in Holland. The Zeppelin company is active in a factory on the Swiss side of Lake Constanza, and at the same time has leased an Italian factory near Genoa and is organizing a company for aviation construction near Seville, Spain.

FAMOUS FERRIS WHEEL IS NO MORE

PARIS — Americans visiting Paris will no longer see the famous Ferris Wheel, which with the Eiffel Tower for 20 years has been one of the most familiar landmarks of the French capital. Modern needs have decreed that the colossal wheel make way for a more profitable investment. Workmen are now dismantling the huge steel structure, the axle of which alone weighs 72,000 pounds and is set a distance of 164 feet from the ground.

Built in 1900, at the time of the Paris Exhibition from plans of an American engineer whose name it bears, the gigantic wheel has afforded pleasure and amusement to hundreds of thousands of Parisians and foreign visitors, young and old.

AUTO FINANCE COMPANIES MEET

(By The Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, IND. — Importance of automobile finance companies in modern business will be the keynote topic discussed at the first convention of the National Association of Finance Companies in this city June 7. Representatives from finance companies in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, and Missouri will attend the convention.

Fred E. Barrett of Indianapolis is a vice-president of the association and the Indiana Association of Finance Companies will be host to the national body. Indiana was the first state to organize automobile and motor truck finance companies. "Eighty five percent of the automobiles and motor trucks owned in Indiana were brought by the purchasers through finance company arrangements," Mr. Barrett, who is president of the state association, says. Automobile finance companies have been to purchasers of automobiles and motor trucks what the thinker in business men and manufacturers. Without food formulated by the finance companies in Indiana the number of motorists would in all probability be much less than half the number who now enjoy the convenience and pleasure possible through owning an automobile or motor truck. The same is true the nation-wide he added.

Speakers representing bankers, motorists and civic activities will deliver addresses at the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clark, Mrs. Claude Thomas, Mrs. P. D. Smith, Mrs. Jim Doyle and daughter Miss Mary Doyle, were all callers in Jacksonville yesterday from Winchester.

Mrs. Levi Deatherage of Arcadia spent the day in the city yesterday calling on friends.

PRICE OF WHEAT GAVE WAY AT LAST

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 6.—Altho the wheat market here showed firmness the greater part of the time today, prices gave way at the last moment largely to reports of British offers to resell wheat at 2c
higher than yesterday's sale.
The close here was heavy, 1c to a net lower, with July and September both at $1.12 to $1.12 1/2.
Corn finished unchanged to 1/2c
lower, oats 1/2c off to 1/2c advance.
In connection with the downturn of values in the wheat market near the end of the day, talk of British reselling was emphasized by word that good rains had fallen in India and Australia, and by estimates that India would have an exportable surplus of 50-600,000 bushels. Besides domestic crops were being favored by good weather, and the hot wave over Canada was broken. Furthermore, mills appeared to be taking as little old wheat as possible and to be waiting for new.
An advancing tendency which the market displayed up to the final half hour of the session resulted to a large extent from the fact that a past holiday decline in Liverpool quotations turned out to be smaller than was looked for and was further discounted
an advance in sterling exchange.
Another bullish factor was big shipment from Chicago, 800,000 bushels clearing yesterday whereas arrivals here today were only a dozen car loads.

Corn and oats prices were dominated by the action of the wheat market. Higher quotations on hogs gave a lift to provisions.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THE NORTH HALF OF THE EAST SIDE

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

The north half of the east side of the Square did not compare very favorably, in 1857, with today.

Bancrofts.

Joseph H., and Horace Bancroft had a dry goods store at the southeast corner of the Square, and North Mainvalterre street; in a brick building substantially the same as that on that corner now.

Joseph, if not Horace Bancroft came here about 1836, and they were well known and prominent thereafter. They retired from storekeeping for a while. Then Nicholas Milburn, Sr., had a grocery store there; and about the end of the Civil War Joseph H. Bancroft and his son John A., had a boot and shoe store there. This did not run very long. Goddard, Rand & Co., had the same sort of a store there, and then Marceys. From this the Hopper and Sons shoe business of today is descended.

The writer does not recall what kind of a building was next south of the Bancroft corner, in 1857; but about 1860 Joseph O. King put up the two stores next south of Bancrofts. These, three story good bricks still stand.

Henry Rice.

a clothing dealer opened up the north one of these stores, and it was then quite a fine establishment. Rice went to Memphis, Tenn., in 1862, and struck a War opportunity of some kind, whereby he made much money, so he could graduate into a business in New York City, where he made 'lots more' money.

Mr. J. W. Lathrop succeeded Rice in the King building and stayed there some time. He had Thomas J. Pitner, George N. Loomis and Peleg Child as clerks. His son Edward B. Lathrop, afterwards a banker in Chicago, probably entered business in that store.

The writer does not recall who had the south one of the King stores at first, but Oliver Dayton had that at one time, and Alcott and Abbott later. Frank Abbott and Lee Alcott were there as boys.

Next was a cheap, two story, frame building in which Samuel H. Hamilton, son of "Dr." William Hamilton had a bakery. He was a brother of Emanuel, David, and William Hamilton, Jr.

P. A. Brehm succeeded Hamilton, and Mr. F. F. Schmalz began with Brehm.

In January, 1866, the firm of Hockenhuill, King and Elliott, bankers, began business in the Eames building. They soon took the Brehm ground, and Mr. Hockenhuill put up the present Elliott bank building.

Myers and Knollenberg tobaccoists, had a frame store next south in 1857. John Hockenhuill, brother of Robert, the banker, put up two, two story brick stores, about 1858, on the Myers and Knollenberg lot, and the one next south of it. Then Myers and Knollenberg took the north store, for years; and J. B. C. Smith was probably the first occupant of the south building.

Robert Hockenhuill, the druggist, then occupied the two story brick, next south of J. B. C. Smith, and his establishment ran back eastward, and then ran southward to a front on East State street. This was Hockenhuill's brick warehouse.

Timothy D. Eames had the two and a half story brick next, in 1856-57, and earlier, as a dry-goods and general store. He was the father of Charles M. Eames, afterwards editor and proprietor of the Journal. T. D. Eames retired from business about 1860, and was succeeded by George Mader, a German, with a clothing stock. Felix G. Farrell succeeded in a general store, and in 1866.

Hockenhuill, King & Elliott opened their banking house in this room.

On the corner of East State the continuation of the Eames building stood, a two story and a half building, probably occupied in 1857 by Dr. B. Gillett as a dry goods store. He soon gave way to his son, Charles, and a firm of young men took the place.

Gillett, Mathews and Letton. They were Charles Gillett, Cyrus W. Mathews and Caleb Letton. They did not stay long together, and were succeeded by Judge William Brown with his bank, in 1860.

This part of the block had three sets of business men, who became bankers.

In passing, it is to be noted that a well known old citizen, Charles Daulton, was a Justice of the Peace, in those days and had his office up over the Brown bank. He went to Missouri some years afterward.

Joseph J. Ironmonger and Henry B. Funk established the Jacksonville Independent up there, April 23, 1869. It was merged, some years after, in what is now The Courier.

Judge Brown had begun banking in the firm of Elliott and Brown, some years before. The senior partner, Mr. Edward R. Elliott, father of the present Mr. Frank Elliott.

Elisha W. Brown and H. C. Wiswell were in the Brown establishment.

The Central Bank grew out of the Elliott and Brown, and the Brown banks and erected its handsome building, still standing at the southwest corner of West State and the Square, in 1872; now Farrell's Bank.

This ends the walk around the Square, but not the memory of our business men.

Strawberries $2.75 per crate. Call Denny's, phone 477.

Mrs. Elita Perbix and daughter of Chapin were among Tuesday shoppers in Jacksonville.

W. S. Rearick and daughter Miss Helen Rearick, and Rachel and Walter Lohman of Ashland made a trip to the city yesterday and called on friends.

KILLING OF WEEDS IMPORTANT FACTOR

This is primary object in cultivation of corn D. C. Elmer of the University of Illinois says.

URBANA, ILL.—Recent experiments on the cultivation of corn show that of the three generally agreed subjects of cultivation, the destruction of weeds is of far greater importance and is the primary object of cultivation under Illinois conditions, according to D. C. Elmer of the University of Illinois.

Frequently, too, little thought is given to the principles underlying many of our farm practices, said Mr. Elmer. This has been especially true of cultivation, a practice where the "why" is of considerable importance in determining the "how" and "when."

It has been generally agreed that the objects of cultivation are to kill weeds, to form a mulch as a means of saving water, and to open up the soil allowing water to enter more readily and air to circulate more freely. Considerable difference of opinion exists as to which these objects is the most important, but ordinarily the employer is placed on the conservation of soil moisture.

Recent experiments on the cultivation of corn, however, show that the destruction of weeds is of far greater importance, and the primary object of cultivation under Illinois conditions.

It is impossible to overemphasize the fact that weeds must be controlled, and that cultivation is the only practical means of their eradication during the growing season. This cultivation, however, should be just as shallow as possible to avoid root injury. Too, since roots cannot develop in the dry, loose layer, which constitutes the soil mulch, shallow cultivation gives the growing crop a chance to use more of the plowed soil as a feeding zone.

In humid climates cultivation for the purpose of conserving moisture is seldom necessary except in case of "heavy" soils that check badly causing them to dry out to great depths. Because of the tendency of these soils to become hard and compact, and to crust over, the need of cultivation is much greater than for soils which do not "run together" and puddle. Thus it is advisable, even though no weeds are present, to cultivate clay and clay loams as a means of breaking up the surface crust to provide better aeration and to put the soil in condition that water can be more readily absorbed.

But after all, the principal object of cultivation in most instances is the destruction of weeds

Where the land has been thoroughly prepared, and the soil is in good shape and reasonably free from weeds, cultivation is of doubtful value.

H. C. Lowe was up to the city from Bluffs yesterday.

MONUMENT TO GERMAN ARMEN

Berlin.—(By The A. P.)—An imposing monument in honor of German armen who fell in the war is to be erected on the summit of the Regenstein, a precipitous sandstone cliff 970 feet high, situated in a romantic spot in the Harz region. Field Marshal von Hindenburg has accepted the honorary chairmanship of the committee.

The Regenstein was one of the great strongholds of the "robber barons" of the middle ages, and figures largely in German history.
